

Request for Educational Opportunity to be Excused Absence

To Parents:

North Carolina law requires that all absences be coded lawful or unlawful. According to Alexander County School Policy 4400- Attendance and statutory requirements, only the following reasons may be coded as lawful:

1. personal illness or injury that makes the student physically unable to attend school;
2. isolation ordered by the State Board of Health;
3. death in the immediate family;
4. emergency medical or dental appointment or such an appointment that has been approved in advance by the principal;
5. participation under subpoena as a witness in a court proceeding;
6. observance of an event required or suggested by the religion of the student or the student's parent(s) with prior approval by the principal;
7. participation in a valid educational opportunity, such as travel or service as a legislative or Governor's page, with prior approval by the principal;
8. absence due to pregnancy and related condition or parenting, when medically necessary.
